

PSA Chennai - Vessel Service

PSA Chennai is well connected to the Far East region and trade with 4 weekly vessel services, 1 biweekly vessel services and 1 regular coastal service to Port Blair. It also have almost daily sailings to the major transshipment hub in Singapore PSA terminals. The following tables shows vessel services of PSA Chennai.

| Day       | Service                       | Port Rotation                                                                                                                                        |
|-----------|-------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Sunday    | CVI                           | Chennai – Vizag – Port Kelang (West) – Ho Chi Minh – Ningbo – Shanghai – Ho Chi Minh – Singapore                                                     |
|           | (China Vietnam India Service) |                                                                                                                                                      |
| Wednesday | MD1                           | Chennai - Vizag - Singapore - PKG (West) - PKG (North)                                                                                               |
|           | (Madras Midweek Service)      |                                                                                                                                                      |
| Thursday  | FME                           | PSA Chennai - Vizag - Port Kelang (West) - Singapore - Manila - Busan - Qingdao - Shanghai - Shekou- Singapore - Port Kelang (West)              |
|           | (Far East Madras Express )    |                                                                                                                                                      |
| Friday    | CI3                           | Chennai - Kattupalli - Port Klang North - Singapore-Haiphong - Shangai - Ningbo - Hong Kong - Shekou-Singapore- Port Klang West-Port Klang North |
|           | (China India Service III)     |                                                                                                                                                      |
| Weekly    | Coastal                       | Chennai - Port Blair - Chennai                                                                                                                       |